

Launch of Writers on Parade at the Don Pyatt Room of the Norwood Town Hall, 23rd April 2008.

Patron of Kensington & Norwood Writers Group, Elizabeth Mansutti launched the first issue of Writers on Parade. Vol 1 No 1, Autumn 2008.

Co-President Anne Chappel

“We hope that through this Journal we can reach out to our community to showcase some of the writing that we share amongst ourselves during our meetings. I am constantly amazed by the talent and creativity present amongst us. We hope also to attract more writers to join us to share their efforts. It is a brave act to put pen to paper and often a lonely one. But now we will not be lonely for we are sharing together in the effort that has joined together to produce this first journal for our community of friends and writers to read and enjoy. “

Co-President Jill Wherry presents a bouquet of flowers to Kensington & Norwood Writers' Group Patron Elizabeth Mansutti.

Some of the contributors read selections from their work from the first issue of Writers on Parade.

A view of part of the invited audience that attended the launch.